The members of NEOM Advisory Board are:

Tim Brown
CEO and President of IDEO. Brown focuses on the value of design thinking to business people and designers. Brown discusses this around the world, including at the World Economic Forum in Davos and through TED Talks. He is an industrial designer by training and has earned numerous design awards, as well as advising senior business leaders.

Dan Doctoroff
Founder and CEO of Sidewalk Labs. Before taking over Sidewalk Labs, Doctoroff was President and CEO of the SoftBank Vision Fund to support the SoftBank Group Corp. Chairman and CEO of the Silicon Valley-based technology investment firm Andreessen Horowitz. Prior to that, Doctoroff was President and CEO of Bloomberg L.P., which he joined in 2007. Doctoroff is also Co-Founder and former CEO of Uber. During his seven years leading Uber, the company grew to operate in more than 70 countries, employing over 11,000 people and provided 3 million drivers with flexible work opportunities to complete over 5 billion rider trips. Prior to Uber, he founded Red Swoosh, a networking software company.

Andrew Liveris
Founder and CEO of Dow Chemical and Executive Chairman of DuPont/DuPont. Liveris ran Dow, a producer and marketer of chemical, materials, plastics and specialty chemicals for over 14 years and was responsible for transforming Dow and DuPont into the largest chemical company in the world. He has advised two U.S. presidents, written a seminal book on the criticality of manufacturing to economic growth and is on the boards of several American, Western European and Japanese companies.

Lord Norman Foster
Chairman and Executive Chairman of Foster + Partners. Foster + Partners is a global studio for architecture, urbanism and design. Major projects include Reichstag in Berlin, the Great Court of British Museum, Boston Museum of Fine Arts, Headquarters of Apple, Bloomberg and Concord and airports in Hong Kong and Beijing. He is also the President of the Norman Foster Foundation.

Ernest J. Moniz
Former U.S. Secretary of Energy from 2013 to January 2017. He is the Cecil and Ida Green Professor of Physics and Engineering Systems emeritus at MIT and Chief Curator of the World Economic Forum in Davos. He serves on the boards of several environmental organizations.

Rob Speyer
President and CEO of Tishman Speyer. Speyer has grown Tishman Speyer into a leading global real estate company with $50 billion in assets. He is the Chairman of the Advisory Board of the Mayor’s Fund to Advance New York City. He is an expert on impact investing and currently teaches at MIT. He has co-authored over 500 publications and patents.

Jean-Frédéric Schenkel
President of Nestlé. Schenkel is a leader in developing strategies and managing resources to support interdisciplinary, collaborative research bridging science and environmental issues and is currently a National Geographic Explorer. He is the author of over 400 publications with more than 106,000 citations and 200 patents.

Marc Andreessen
Co-founder and General Partner of Andreessen Horowitz. Andreessen is an entrepreneur in the tech world. He founded and led as CEO of Netscape from 1994 to 1999, a market leader in Internet software and a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering.

Timothy Collins
Co-founder & Investor of Redwood Advisors, L.P. Collins founded investment firm Ripplewood in 1995, with previous experience on O’Neill Corporation, Lazard Freez & Company, Bear Allen Hamilton and Cumnor Engine Company. He has served on a number of corporate boards and is currently Chairman of the Yale SUM Advisory Board.